IDEAL PARK FORM BOOKS.

There are for sale at this office six books of the entire Ideal Park meeting, in flexible leather covers, with a full index. The books cost $5 each. They are such as are supplied to bookmakers.

SAN FRANCISCO FORM.

DAILY RACING FORM doesn't believe in the verbal exultation, so common in modern newspaperdom. It gathers and prints its news from day to day as an orderly and well-mannered man arranges his affairs. It aims to serve the racing public and seeks its path keenly and energetically. The paper may well be pardoned for seeking the special attention of its clients toward the San Francisco charts, which are published each morning. The San Francisco service began with the issue of Tuesday, December 1. It involved the wiring of many complicated racing figures some 2400 miles. The Western Union wires to Frisco when bad, are the best in the land. When good they are superb. Monday night they were bad. A mountain storm swept away five or six miles of poles last week. They are being set up with keen energy. The Ingleside chart of Monday came by Western Union but in a roundabout way, by the ancient Wheatstone methods. Yet it landed in the office of DAILY RACING FORM at 10:10 p. m. complete, and was off our presses at midnight. At 9 a. m. Tuesday's paper was in Detroit. Never before has such a table been wired such a distance in such time.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Horse owners seem to take kindly to Chicago weather for wintering, and two thirds of the stables that raced at Ideal Park stay at home. John Brenock has excellent quarters at Forsyth and his entire string will remain there in charge of Dave Leary until spring. Horses seem to do well in the deep Indiana sand, training strong and with plenty of flesh. A portion of Charles Cogle's string is at Roby. Miss Ames, who scored so often at a long price is in the same lot and much is expected of her in her three-year-old form. She is a filly with a wonderful burst of speed, and has on different occasions shown courage. Walkover and Ulysses of the same stable, have been shipped to Madison, Ill., with Fred Foster's lot. The pair, along with Abuse and Glenmoyn, after a much needed rest, will be taken to the coast to race. That fast filly Minerva is at Roby, where she will spend the winter. Considering her hard years racing she looks real good. A special train over the North Western road will leave for Frisco tonight. Quite a number of bookmakers and clerks have engaged passage. Starter Dick Dwyer goes to West Baden for a couple of weeks, and from there to New York.

He will return about the first of the year to arrange for next season's work. Dwyer's work at Ideal Park was far above the average, and the racing public would be glad to see him get all the starting in and about Chicago in 1897. G. W. Poole, W. H. Roller and the Orwell Stable arrived at New Orleans yesterday. Jockeys Clay and Caywood were with them.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Judge Burke says anything over ninety-five pounds stops Sugar Foot, but with light weight up the Buckmaster gelding is hard to catch in any man's country.—Breeder and Sportsman. Ask Judge Burke about Sugar Foot and the mud. Such a prescription may be of value to form players and students of equine individuality.

There is some shabby talk about August Belmont and Jockey Griffin's contract going the rounds. Shame! August Belmont may make mistakes. Every item of humanity does. But he doesn't make the same mistake twice and if Mr. Belmont has any contract for any amount with any man on earth it will be fulfilled in a high-class way.
